

Feeding America West Michigan Food Bank
Volunteer Agreement/Photo Release

In order to work as a volunteer at Feeding America West Michigan Food Bank, I agree to the following:

I will wear appropriate clothing while volunteering at the food bank.

I will wear closed shoes for safety.

I will not wear loose or dangling jewelry.

I will be responsible for my own personal items such as purses, cell phones, keys, and jackets. The Food Bank is not liable for items that may be lost or stolen.

I will wash my hands before starting any volunteer project.

I will wash my hands after eating, drinking, smoking, or using the restroom.

I will wear gloves when handling unpackaged food or produce.

I will wear a hairnet or hat (and a beard net, if applicable) when repackaging food.

I will not put food or food containers/boxes directly on the floor.

I will only consume food or beverages in designated areas.

I will report any health issues, recent illnesses, wounds or open skin lesions that may exempt me from handling food bank products or performing certain tasks.

I will report any allergies (especially to food or chemicals) that may interfere with my ability to volunteer.

I will follow the direction of the Feeding America staff, which will give safe food handling instructions and answer any questions I may have regarding each assigned project.

I will not consume, steal, destroy, or intentionally contaminate any food bank product.

I will obey all applicable food bank policies.
